DaVinci's Vitruvian Man is the image of the ideal male form. Marcus' Vitruvian Mango is the same, but sweeter, softer, seasonally available and, when ripe, delicately perfumed.

Mary Austin

Thursday 27th November 2025 to Saturday 10th January 2026

A Retrospective Exhibition
by Mary Austin

If Victoria Wood had been an artist rather than a writer, she would probably have produced work like Mary Austin's, capturing the humour and poignancy of everyday life. Mary studied at Brighton School of Art in the early 60s and started her career as an illustrator.

During a varied career, she always carried sketchbooks to capture images of people, especially in Loughborough and Sileby. From around the late 90s she began to explore monoprinting and working over these with other media to produce the works at this exhibition.

Stitchuation

Thursday 15th January to Saturday 28th February 2026

A Group Exhibition by Traverse

Traverse invites you to explore Stitchuation - a playful, provocative, and thought-provoking exhibition that uses stitch as both medium and message. Bringing together the unique voices of four textile artists, this collaborative show traverses personal, emotional and imagined landscapes through thread, texture, colour and form.

Expect work that challenges convention and celebrates the versatility of textile art - from delicate hand embroidery to bold, experimental surfaces.
