Stitchuation

Thursday 15th January -
Saturday 28th February

A Group Exhibition by Traverse

Traverse invites you to explore Stitchuation - a playful, provocative, and thought-provoking exhibition that uses stitch as both medium and message. Bringing together the unique voices of four textile artists, this collaborative show traverses personal, emotional and imagined landscapes through thread, texture, colour and form.

Expect work that challenges convention and celebrates the versatility of textile art - from delicate hand embroidery to bold, experimental surfaces

Nature, Staged and Unbound

Thursday 23rd April -
Saturday 6th June

A Solo Exhibition by Chloe Jean

'Nature, Staged and Unbound' explores the relationship between the handmade and the natural, the miniature and the monumental.

Through paper collages, dioramas, sculpted flowers, butterflies, and painted botanicals, nature is staged and reimagined. Each piece carries the intimacy of craft - the cut, the fold, the fragile layer - while drawing from contemporary art and installation. The result is a whimsical, precise ecology: a paper wilderness in bloom, where gardens spill beyond frames, butterflies hover, and flora unfold in fragility and abundance.

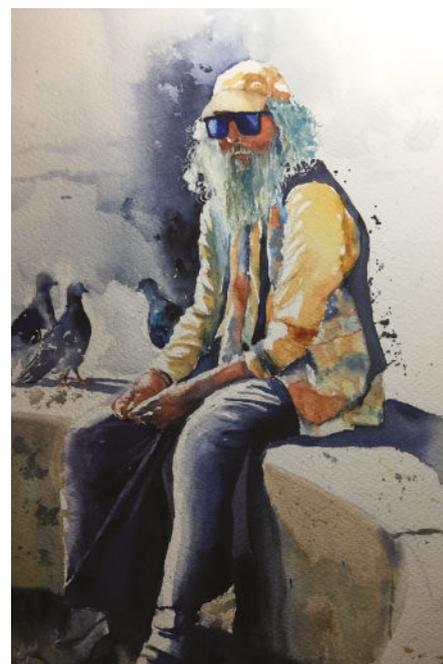

Growth

Thursday 5th March -
Saturday 18th April

A Collaborative Craft Exhibition

This exhibition brings together a vibrant collective of craftspeople from across the Midlands, each exploring what "growth" means to them. For some, growth has meant pushing artistic boundaries or experimenting with unfamiliar techniques and materials. Others have drawn inspiration from the natural world - capturing the quiet persistence of plants or the surprising resilience of life in unexpected places. At least one maker turned to their craft during challenging personal times, finding healing through the making process. The exhibition is as diverse as those that created it - a collection of personal expressions and creative breakthroughs that together explore the many facets of growth.

Stories in Watercolour

Thursday 11th June -
Saturday 25th July

A Solo exhibition by Celia Brookes

The artworks in, "Stories in Watercolour", are of everyday characters in real life.

Celia Creates a composition, using depth, shapes, textures and shadows. These are not only aesthetically pleasing to the human eye, but they also make people pause and wonder, what is the story behind this watercolour painting.
